Good news -- well, for some :-)) -- resumed putting these enews on the website (see westvan.org), so if you're a new subscriber or have missed some (wch is why they're now numbered).

Still trying to catch up -- mostly unsuccessfully :-)

Am still advocating no conflicting/overlapping mtgs; glad to learn a few cclrs brave (and conscientious) enough to attend some B-Line stakeholder mtgs. Somewhat concerned to hear ALL of those mtgs are already fully booked -- wonder if they'll put on more???

Briefly, some tidbits (out of order), the 'final' Heritage Wk flyer fyi {at bottom, also attached, and up at <https://heritage.westvan.org/>}. Hope you're enjoying a long "Heritage Weekend" to start the actual H Wk.

Last night, really enjoyed a remarkable performance of Vancouver Opera's La Bohème -- highly recommend -- three left 19th, 21st, 24th. (Alas, we missed the free talk cuz our car had been broken into and had to take a taxi!) (See: <https://mailchi.mp/vancouveropera/twelve-days-of-gifts-260299?e=3aa3c3b24d>)

DWV'S TRAFFIC BULLETIN -- PICCADILLY NORTH

= HERITAGE DAY (aka Family Day)

- The National on CBC last night had a piece on what's (still) called Heritage Day in NS.

Nova Scotia to honour Maud Lewis for Heritage Day

Lewis died in 1970, but her paintings have since sold for tens of thousands of dollars
